How to network?

Part II of II

Based on your profile and other participant profiles, the “Recommended For You” section will show profiles of who the platform matches you with.

- Meet opens a pop-up window to request a virtual meeting with another event participant.
- Interested shows the event participant that you are interested in learning more about them and/or their company. If the event participant also marks you as interested, you will be able to chat within the platform before having a virtual video meeting.
- Skip removes the event participant from showing on the “Recommended For You” list.
